at the behest of the respondent pursuant to aforesaid direction, petitioner has approached this Court in the instant proceedings.

2. Learned counsel appearing for the respondent, states that though he has every reason to presume and believe that by now, order/judgment sought to be executed, must have been complied with in its totality, but if not, same would be definitely complied with within a period of six weeks from today.

3. Consequently, in view of the fair stand adopted by learned counsel for the respondent, this Court sees no reason to keep present petition alive and accordingly, same is disposed of with direction to the respondents to do the needful in terms of judgment alleged to have been violated within a period of six weeks, failing which petitioner would be at liberty to get the present petition revived so that appropriate action in accordance with law is taken towards implementation of the order/judgment.
